

Quentin Riding Club's clubhouse and grounds are ideally suited for special events, wedding receptions, rehearsal dinners, anniversary celebration, birthday celebration, office parties and more.

Clubhouse catering facilities can accommodate 125 persons for inside private parties, with additional space for 30 to 40 people in the rustic Bit & Spur Pub and room for 70 on our beautiful seasonal outdoor deck. The shows, craft shows, antique shows, auctions, and many more activities. The club house grounds are also available for dog shows, car shows, auctions, and many more activities.

Call (717) 639-1918 for information about our facilities and menus, or come visit us at the corner of Routes 72 and 419, four miles south of Lebanon, in Quentin, Pennsylvania. Services of prominent horsemen are available year-round, but Clubhouse membership is required for boarding, schooling, or instruction. Although the clubhouse is a private facility, visitors are welcome to inspect the grounds and to watch the outside events such as horse shows, car shows, community days or other outside events. At a modest cost, temporary or emergency stabling is available to nonmembers and transients, except during large shows when space may not be available.

If you are interested in joining the Quentin Riding Club, "the show place grounds of the east coast," with it's beautiful tree shade lawns. Please contact the club office at the number and address at the top of the page, or ask one of our proud members, who would be more than happy to help you.
