Q.R.C. Corporate Membership

The Q.R.C. Board of Directors is pleased to offer you and your fine organization our new exclusive Corporate membership to the Quentin Riding Club. This membership is designed for Corporations and businesses that want to entertain their guests and enjoy the full amenities of the Club. This membership can be tailored to fit the needs of any business large or small.. The initial and annual cost for the membership is $100 per year. Each membership package includes up to 10 personalized membership cards with separate names for each card holder, you select and will be registered with the office and included on your monthly statement. Each card holder will have a $50 food minimum (per month) that will be billed to the main membership account, to meet all LCB requirements. There is no monthly assessment for this membership, and therefore will not be a full voting member. There will be a onetime $25.00 per card processing fee for the cards issued to cover the expense of the card and the cards CAN NOT be interchangeable. If you want to change any designated cardholder that can be happen at any time for the $25.00 processing fee and contacting the business office with the name change. This membership entitles both the main member and card holders to all uses of the club, or any club functions .Our hope is the card holders will entertain at QRC, frequently. The Board of Directors feels this will become a very popular membership and is planning special events just for this type membership, such as meet and greet nights and open house in conjunction with other events such as horse shows etc.

Please complete this application and provide to your sponsor with a check for $100 made out to the Quentin Riding Club and once approved by the Board of Directors, you can selective the number of cardholders needed and an account will be set up exclusively for your business.

This membership will expire on November 30, 2013.
